The New York Field Club and Philaan American League soccer contest at the Phillies' ball park at Fifteenth and ntingdon streets and the Gothamites re than surprised the several thou-nothing.

The visitors presented a number of familiar faces to fans in this section. They had Percy Hardy, Tommy Duggan, formerly of Merchant Ship, and Percy Andrew, of Disston. Andrew Burnett, also a former Merchant Ship star, was kept on the sidelines.

The New York goals in the first half were scored by Meyerdecks and Bob Stark.

First Half

At the start of the game there was much scrimmaging in midfield. The Phillies carried the ball to within five pards of the goal, where Nielson had in excellent chance, but his shot was a few tenders wide of the post.

bluded several of the Phillies and shot the ball into the net. After a series of serimmages, Nielson had another opportunity but the high wind carried the ball over the cross bar. During a terimmage in Philly territory, Handy, if New York, and Captain Kelly got a penalty kick, but failed.

A few minutes later, Bethune was made by the Tournament of Roses Association, sponsors for the grid iron battle, that it would be held, rain or shine.

The game will be played on a turf field, which probably will be slippery, with a border of mud all the way around the gridlion, where the grass has not been ullowed to grow.

Porter, Local Soccer Star, to Return to England

Manager James Walder, of the Philadelphia Field Club, is on a hunt for several star players to bolster the Phillies' line-up. The injury to Harold Brittain has placed the team at a big disadvantage. Walder's troubles were enhanced this morning when he was told by Center Halfback Porter, one of the stars of the team, that he had played his last game, and he would return to England. It is not known whether he is going to play soccer or not.
